

Wine Survivor Fundraiser

Just in time for the holiday season of entertainment... a chance to win a whole lot of wine!!

Here's how it works:

1. Purchase an entrance fee ticket of $20 and bring a bottle of wine costing $15-$20 to the event

OR

Purchase a $40 ticket and we'll provide the bottle of wine on your behalf.

2. Come to the event where we'll randomly remove people from the island until there is only one survivor left. The final survivor takes home all the wine!!

You can increase your chances of taking home some wine by forming an alliance! As long as one person in your alliance is the final survivor, your alliance splits the bottles of wine. To form an alliance, come up with an alliance name and have everyone use this name when registering. You can also purchase as many tickets as you'd like...each gives you another entry.

The night of the event, we'll be kicking people off the island at 6:30, 6:45, 7:00 and with FINAL SURVIVOR draw at 7:30. You must be there to win and take home your wine!
